ENTRY TERMS

Artwork must be delivered to the Harrow Discovery Centre, Blair Street, Harrow prior to and/or on the 23rd of February between 10.00 am and 5.00 pm. No entries will be accepted after this date unless prior arrangements have been made.

Award will be given to the piece that best depicts the artists interpretation of the theme The Spirit of the First XI of 1868. The winning artwork remains the property of The Harrow Discovery Centre as a commemorative piece to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the epic journey of the First XI to tour England in 1868.

JUDGING

The Judges will be appointed at the discretion of the First XI 1868 Inc. committee. All entries will be judged according to the following criteria:

- Creative use of the medium
- Expression and technique
- Originality of artistic perception and mode of interpretation.

The judges will solely determine the prize winning entries and their decision will be final.

All artwork must be:

- Suitably framed or canvas stretched and fitted with suitable D-rings or equivalent and hanging wire
- Labelled stating the artist, title of work, price that includes the commission and the medium used
- Original work of the competitor.

Commission on all sold works is 20%.

The First XI 1868 Inc. reserves the right to refuse to accept or display an entry without being required to give reason.

Artists must agree to the reproduction of artworks for any media, marketing or advertising purposes.

SECURITY AND INSURANCE

The First XI 1868 Inc. will exercise all reasonable care in the handling and exhibiting of works for the duration of the exhibition, however will not assume any liability for damage or loss of artworks. It is the responsibility of the artist to insure their work against loss or damage during transit, whilst being exhibited, up until the date of collection.

EXHIBITION OPENING

A Cocktail party will be held on Friday night March 2nd to open the exhibition and announce the winner of the Art Prize. Entry is free for exhibiting artists to the cocktail party. Student entries will be announced earlier in the afternoon at a ceremony at the Harrow Discovery Centre (a gold coin donation is always welcome).

Artwork entries must remain on site for the duration of the exhibition. Exhibition will close on Sunday May 6th, 2018. Artwork will remain for sale at the Harrow Discovery Centre for the duration of the 2 months.

Unsold artworks must be collected in the week after the closure date. If an artist is unable to collect their work, prior arrangements must be made and submitted in writing to the Harrow Discovery Centre.

All freight and courier arrangements must be made prior to the exhibition closing, notifying the Harrow Discovery Centre.

Any work not collected after May 13th will no longer be the responsibility of The First XI 1868 Inc or the Harrow Discovery Centre.
